

Build a school where everyone feels safe to belong.

PSYCHOLOGICAL SAFETY

BELONGING

INCLUSION

WELLBEING

SAFEGUARDING

Victoria Jane Leith

Divergent thinker • educator • author • consultant

Victoria works with school leaders and their teams to generate fresh ideas, practical systems and workable solutions. She thinks outside the box, listens to every voice and turns a shared vision into meaningful action.

A thoughtful partner for change

Initial consultation at your school or online, followed by tailored training for all staff.

From conversation to confident action

A flexible partnership shaped around the needs of your school.

01

LISTEN & EXPLORE

Identify challenges with leaders and small staff groups. Make space for every voice.

02

DESIGN TOGETHER

Generate innovative ideas, systems and practical solutions rooted in your context.

03

TRAIN & EMBED

Share engaging whole-staff CPD or INSET and map a clear path for lasting change.

Five benefits for your team

Psychological safety strengthens safeguarding.

- ✓ Confidence to speak up, ask for help and share concerns
- ✓ Stronger trust and connection across the school
- ✓ Earlier recognition and reporting of safeguarding concerns
- ✓ More consistent, compassionate responses from staff
- ✓ Practical systems that embed belonging and wellbeing

Ways to work together

- ✓ School consultancy
- ✓ Whole-staff INSET
- ✓ Interactive CPD
- ✓ Keynotes and conference sessions
- ✓ In person or online • worldwide

SAFE TO BE

Experienced, relevant and internationally connected

Victoria has led sessions for teachers and educators at ResearchED, EARCOS and the Japanese Council of International Schools.

Begin with a FREE, no-obligation consultation

Contact Victoria: contact@thesharednote.org

www.thesharednote.org • Consultancy, training and creative resources for schools worldwide